

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Peggy Jeschke, who is retiring from the South Dakota Department of Labor and Regulation after 40 years of service; and,

Whereas, On February 10, 1976, Peggy began her career with the Department of Labor and Regulation, Division of Unemployment Insurance, working in the file room and tax department, and later moving to the benefits department where she worked as the staff assistant for both benefits and tax; and,

Whereas, Peggy is part of the Aberdeen office where she sorts and files employer quarterly reports, with additional duties that have changed with technology advancements where Peggy moved the paper work files into cabinets, then into the rotating machines where now everything is uploaded into the computer; and,

Whereas, Peggy's willingness to help out no matter what the situation or which department, her thorough attention to details and processes is highly regarded, and her true example of a dedicated worker with an exceptional work ethic will be greatly missed; and,

Whereas, On January 15, 2016, Peggy will retire to spend more time with her husband, Dennis, family, and traveling; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 15, 2016, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in offering her best wishes for a long, healthy, happy, and enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-ninth Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Fifteen.

Dennis Daugaard
